FOREWORD

As each school year comes to a close, certain memories are left behind. Some of them good, some bad, some happy, and some sad.....but all of them have helped us to grow and mature into young men and women better equipped to face the future.

The staff of the 1966 Hornet have placed in this book the highlights of this school year so that in future years you will be able to look into this book and recall those very precious.....MOMENTS TO REMEMBER.

DEDICATION

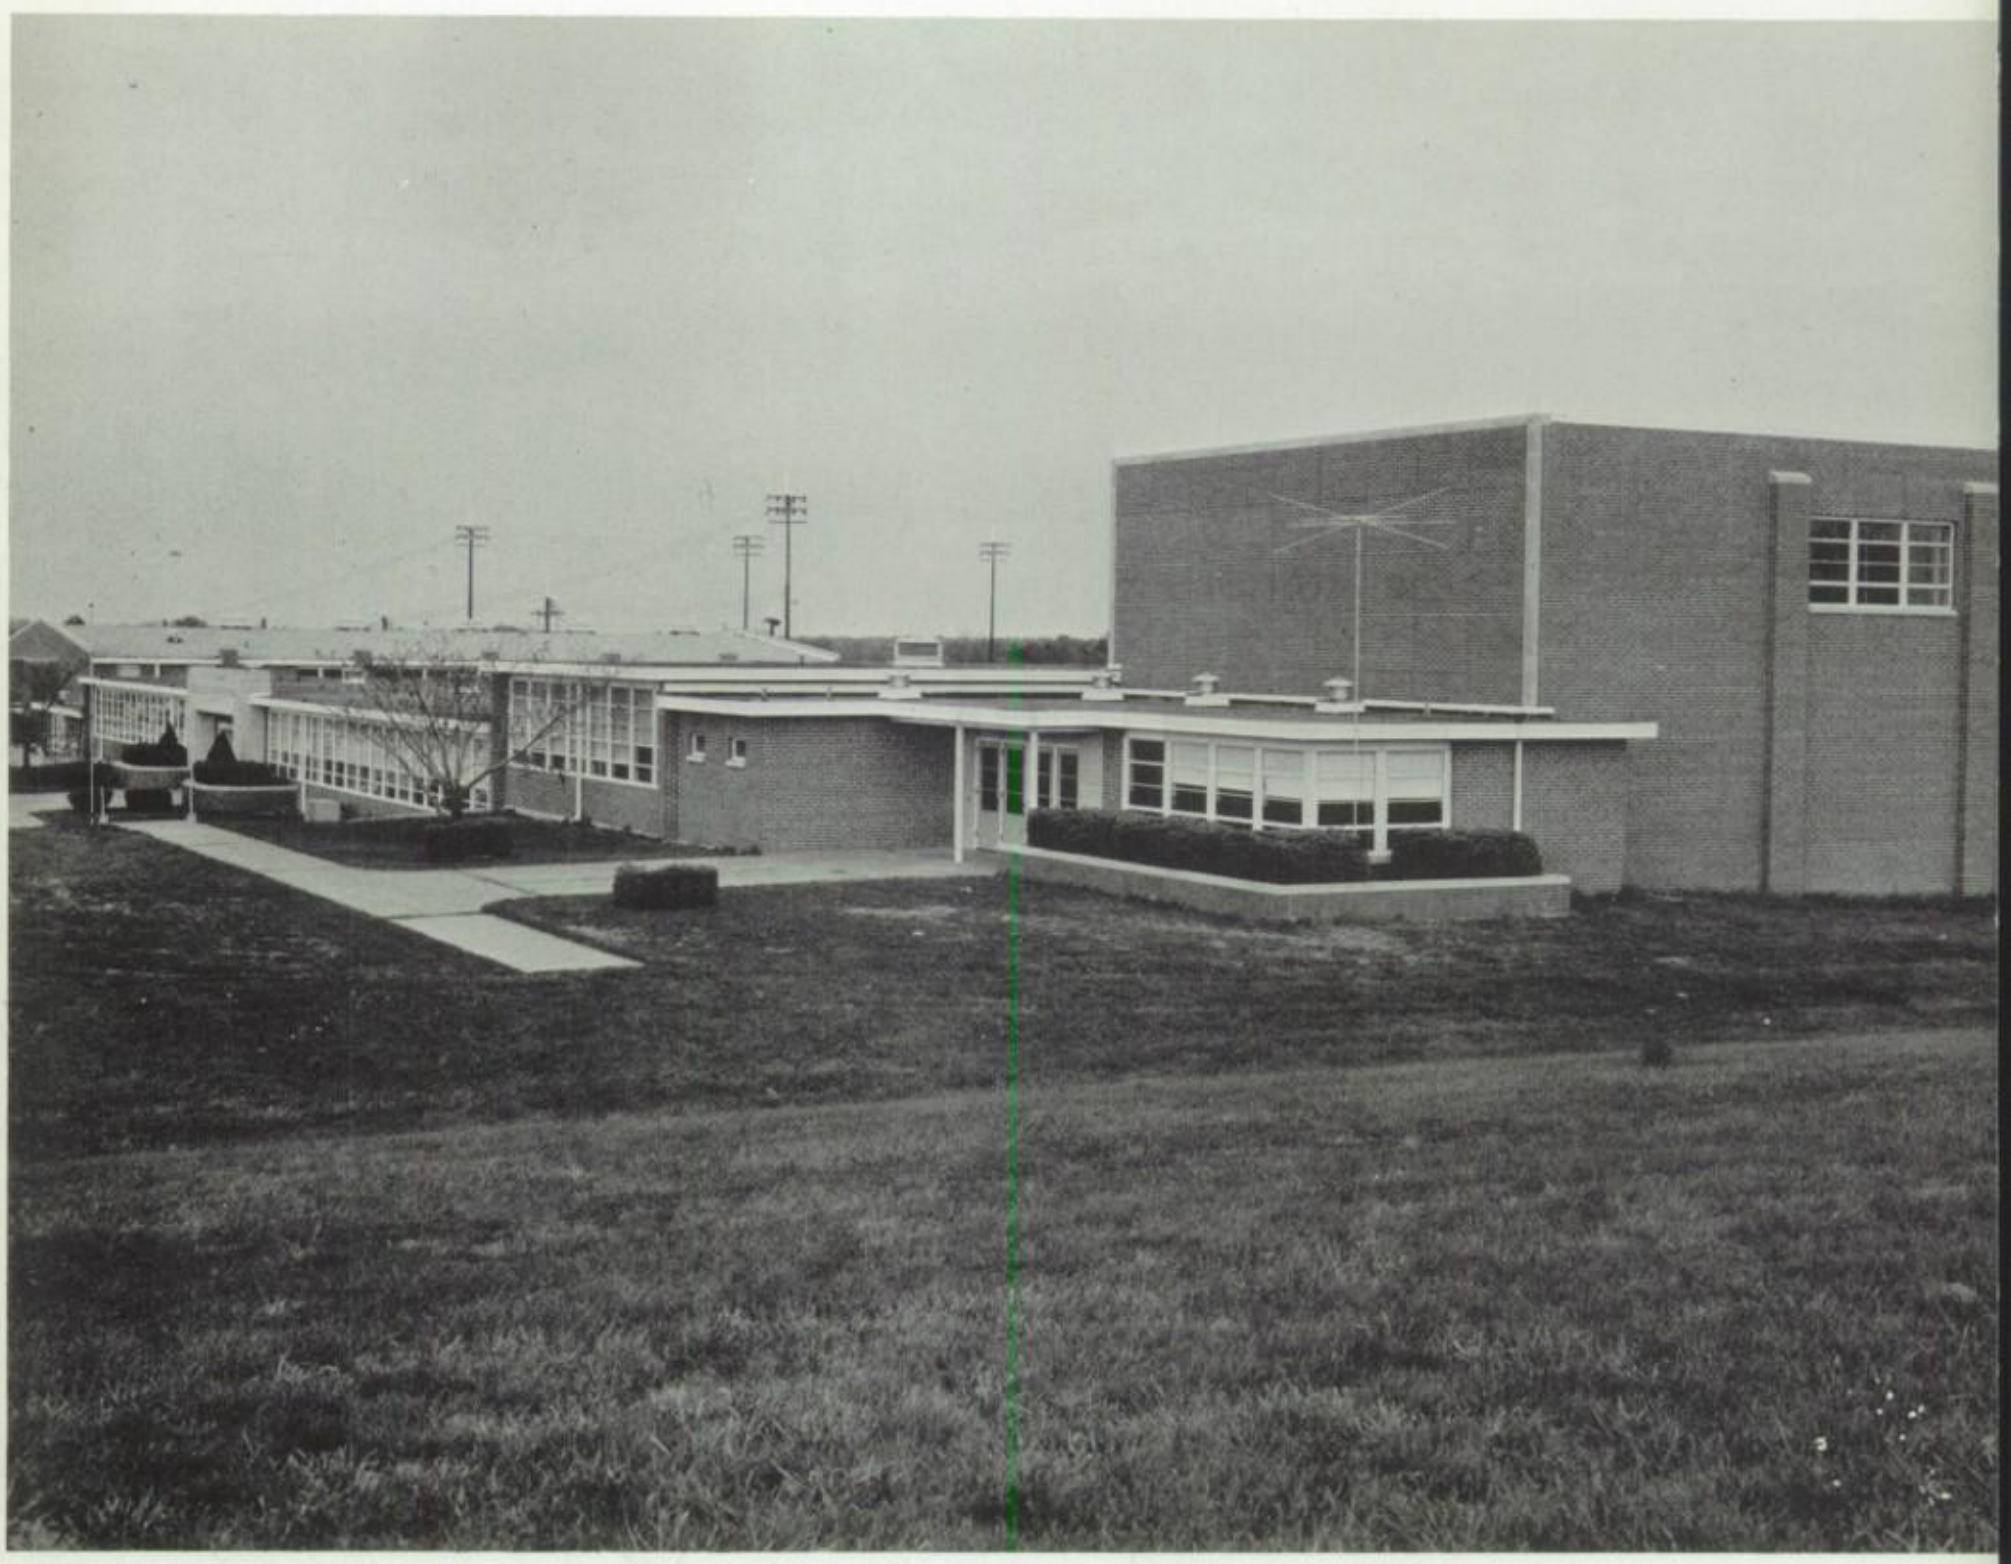
He has understood our problems, assisted us with remarkable patience, listened to our complaints and problems with an admirable smile, inspired us with confidence, encouraged us when we were disheartened and ensured our chance for success.

His determined effort to make us feel needed and happy shall always be remembered as one of our most precious high school memories. Words cannot express our appreciation for all the wonderful guidance we have received. To show how much we love and respect him, we dedicate this 1966 Hornet to our Guidance Counselor, Mr. William Bassitt.

Best wishes to you.

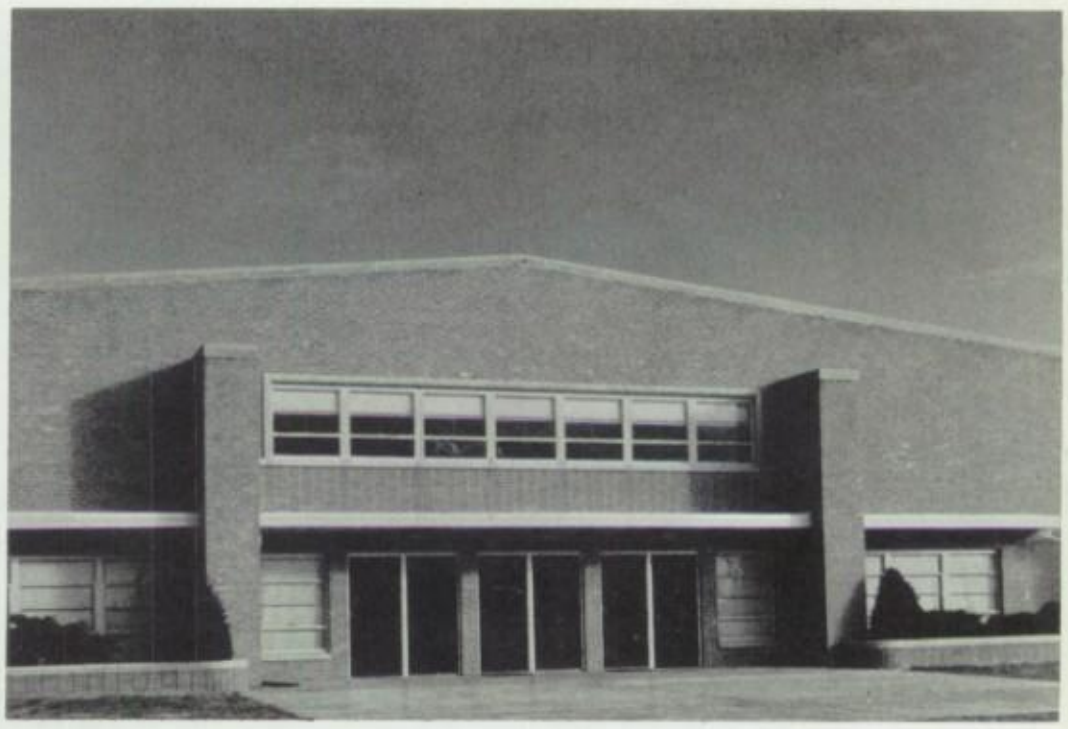
William C. Bassitt

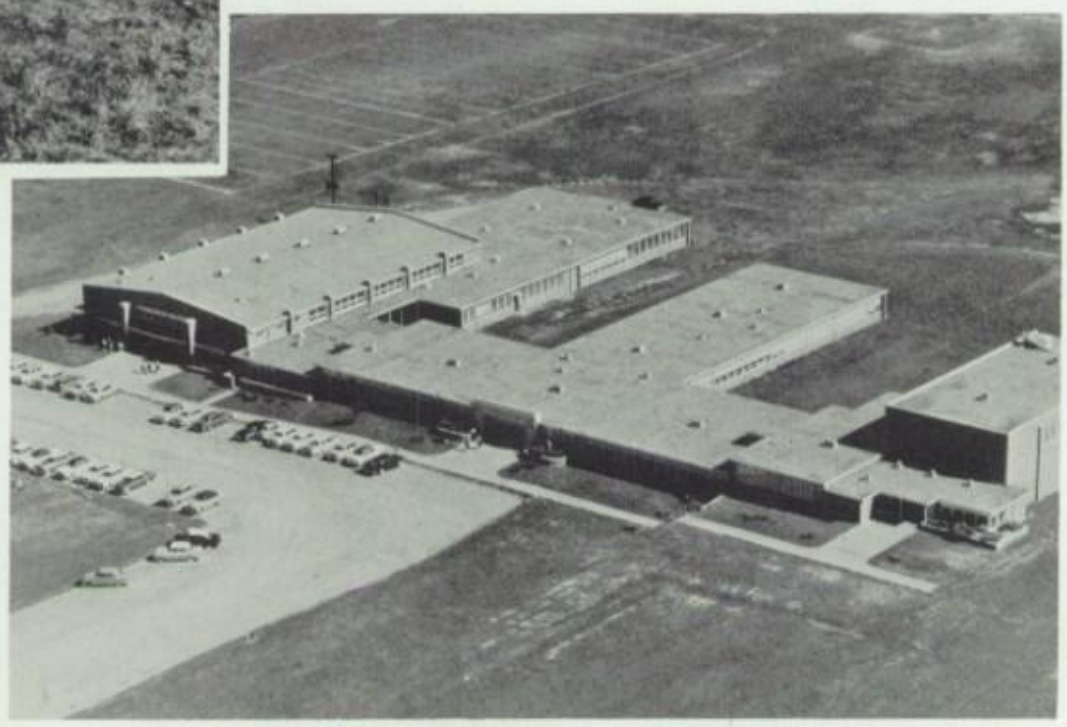
MR. WILLIAM BASSITT



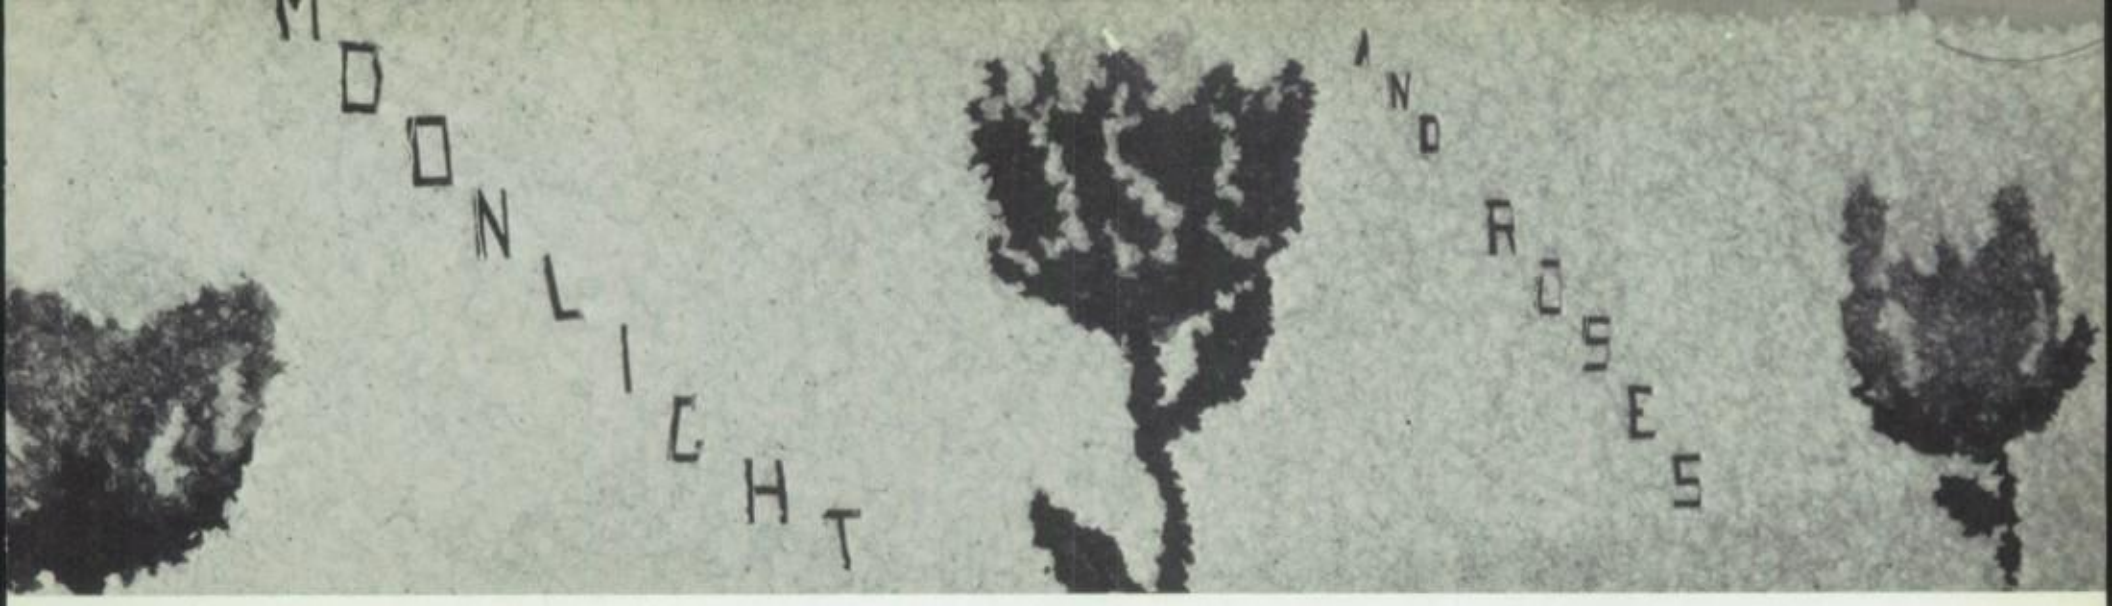
Although many incidents occurred during this school year, not only at NCHS, but throughout the entire world, the graduation ceremonies will be of major importance in the lives of the 1966 seniors. These seniors, whether they plan to continue their education or assume other responsibilities, attribute the knowledge they posses to NCHS and its faculty.

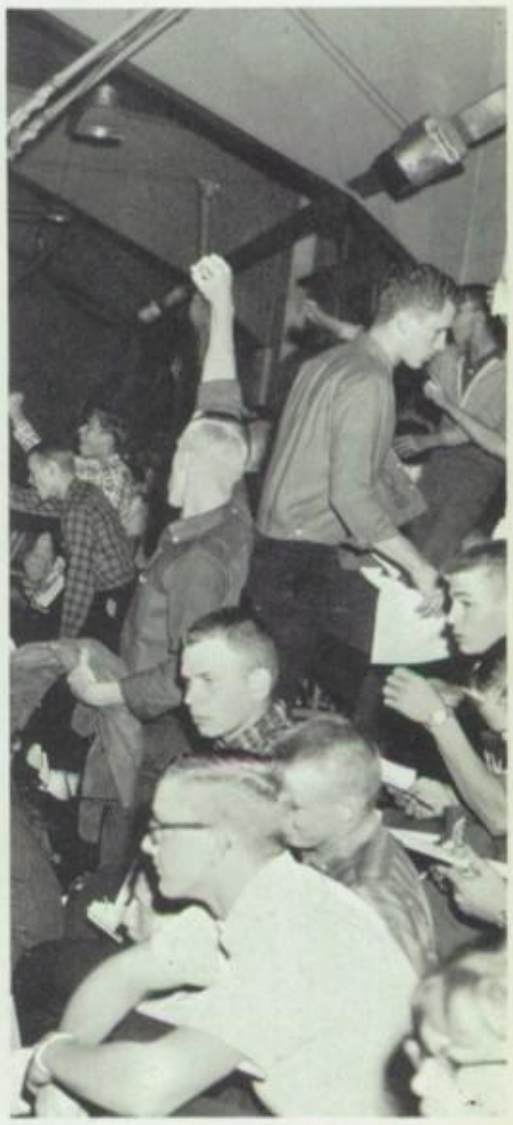
THESE WALLS HARBOR MEMORIES
WHICH WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN

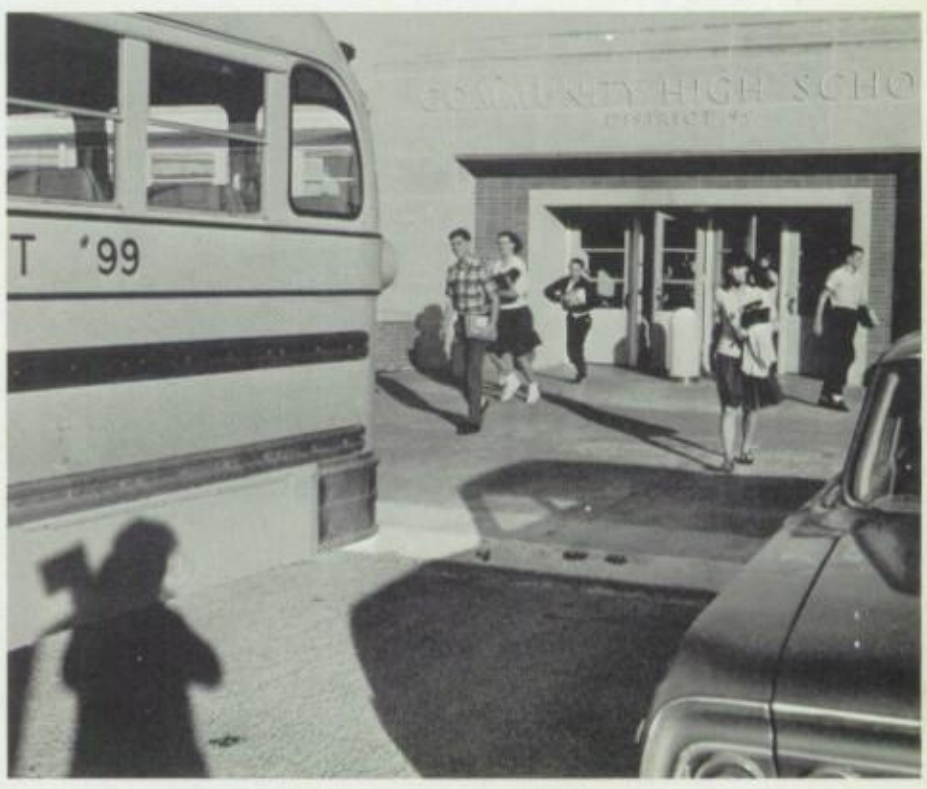




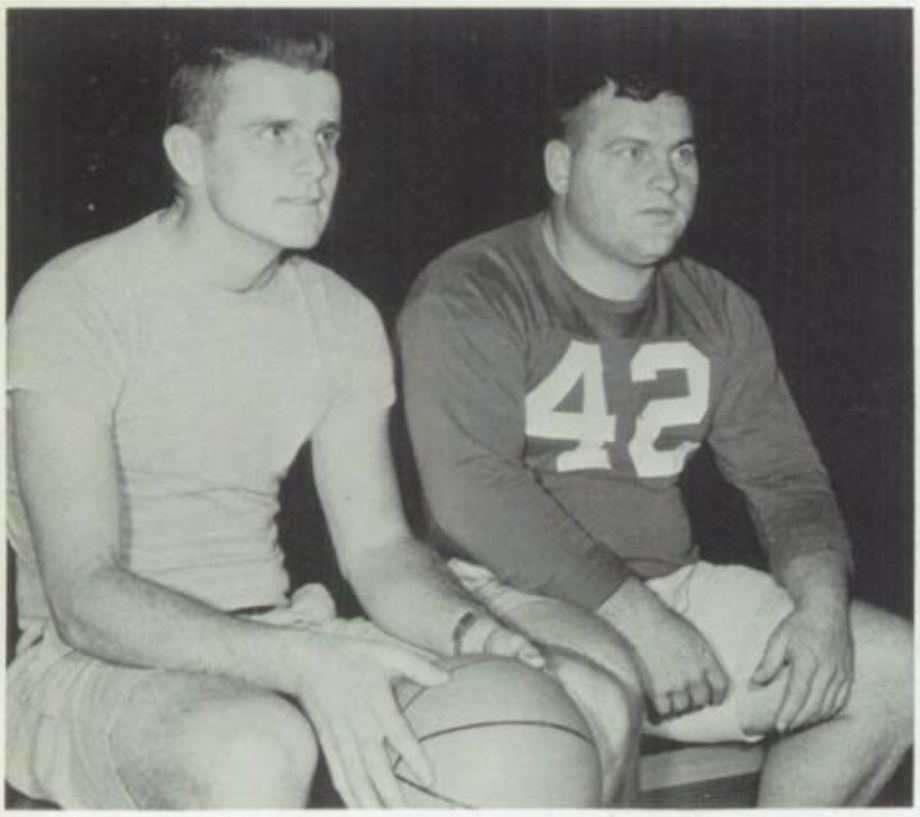
THESE ARE THE MOMENTS WE REMEMBER . . .



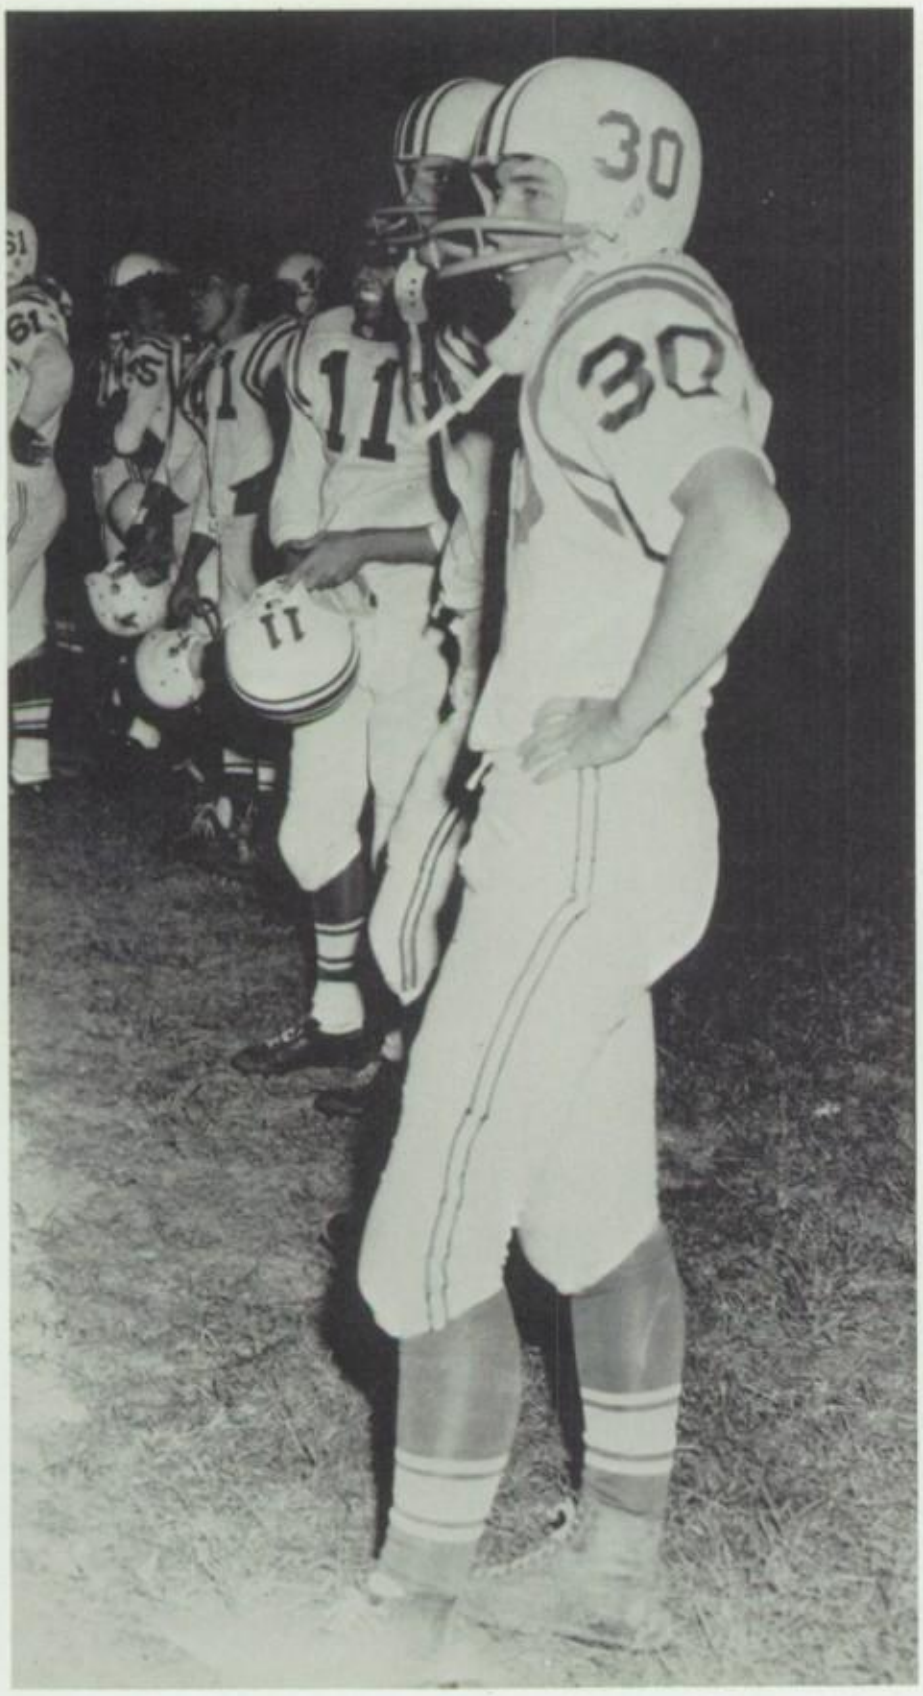




. . . PEOPLE AND PLACES AND THINGS.



BOOSTERS



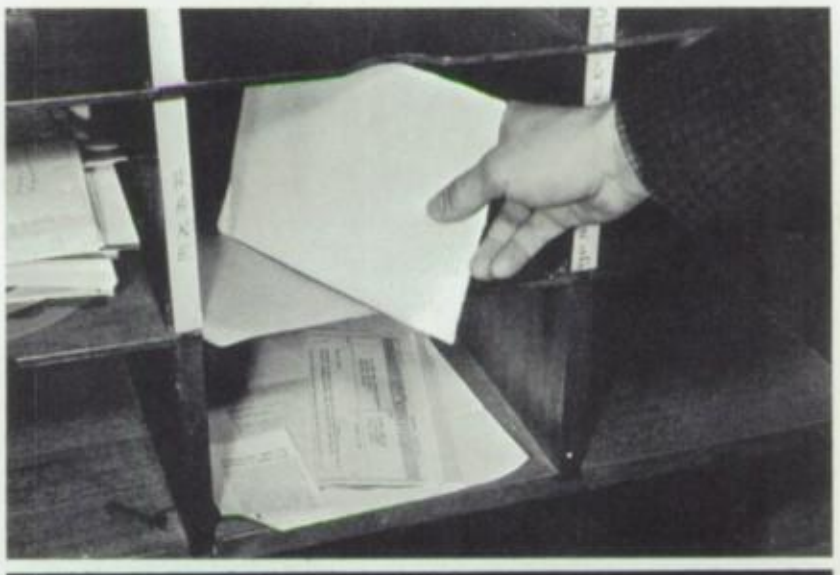
MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

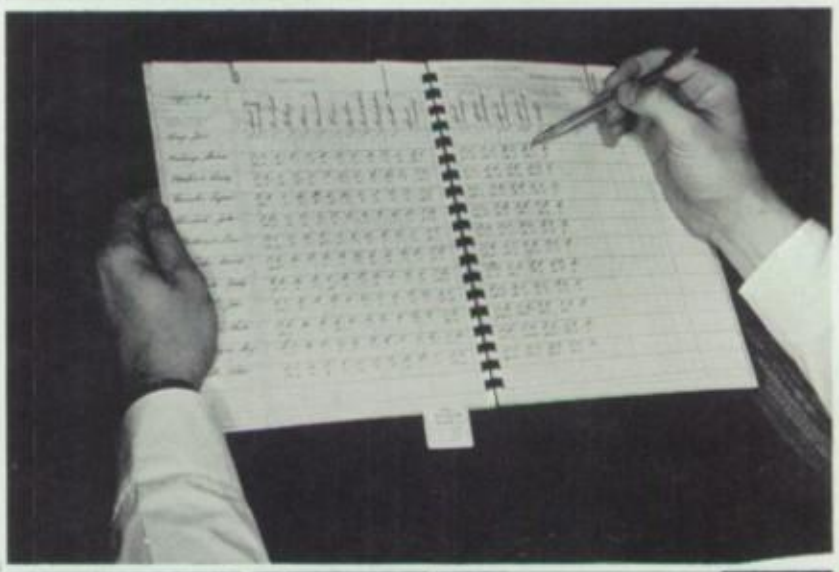
January to December
We'll have MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

The New Year's Eve we did the town,
the day we tore the goal post down,
We will have these MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

The quiet walks, the noisy fun,
the ball room prize we almost won,
we will have these MOMENTS TO REMEMBER.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY





ARTHUR KOTTMEYER
President

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The board of education worked closely in conjunction with the superintendent to solve the many problems which faced NCHS. Together, they labored especially hard on the plans for our new addition. The school board is faced with the important tasks of forming school policies, keeping the school provided with necessary equipment and helping the school run smoothly. We owe our sincerest thanks to these men who have contributed their time and ideas which made NCHS a better place in which to learn.

MR. DAVID McCLINTOCK, SUPERINTENDENT

In keeping with the theme of the yearbook, "Moments to Remember," I would like to say to the seniors--may your memories at Community High have been pleasant and many. To the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, I would like to say--may you have many more pleasant memories during the remainder of your high school days. To the student body--may I say thank you for making this year a pleasant memory for all of us.

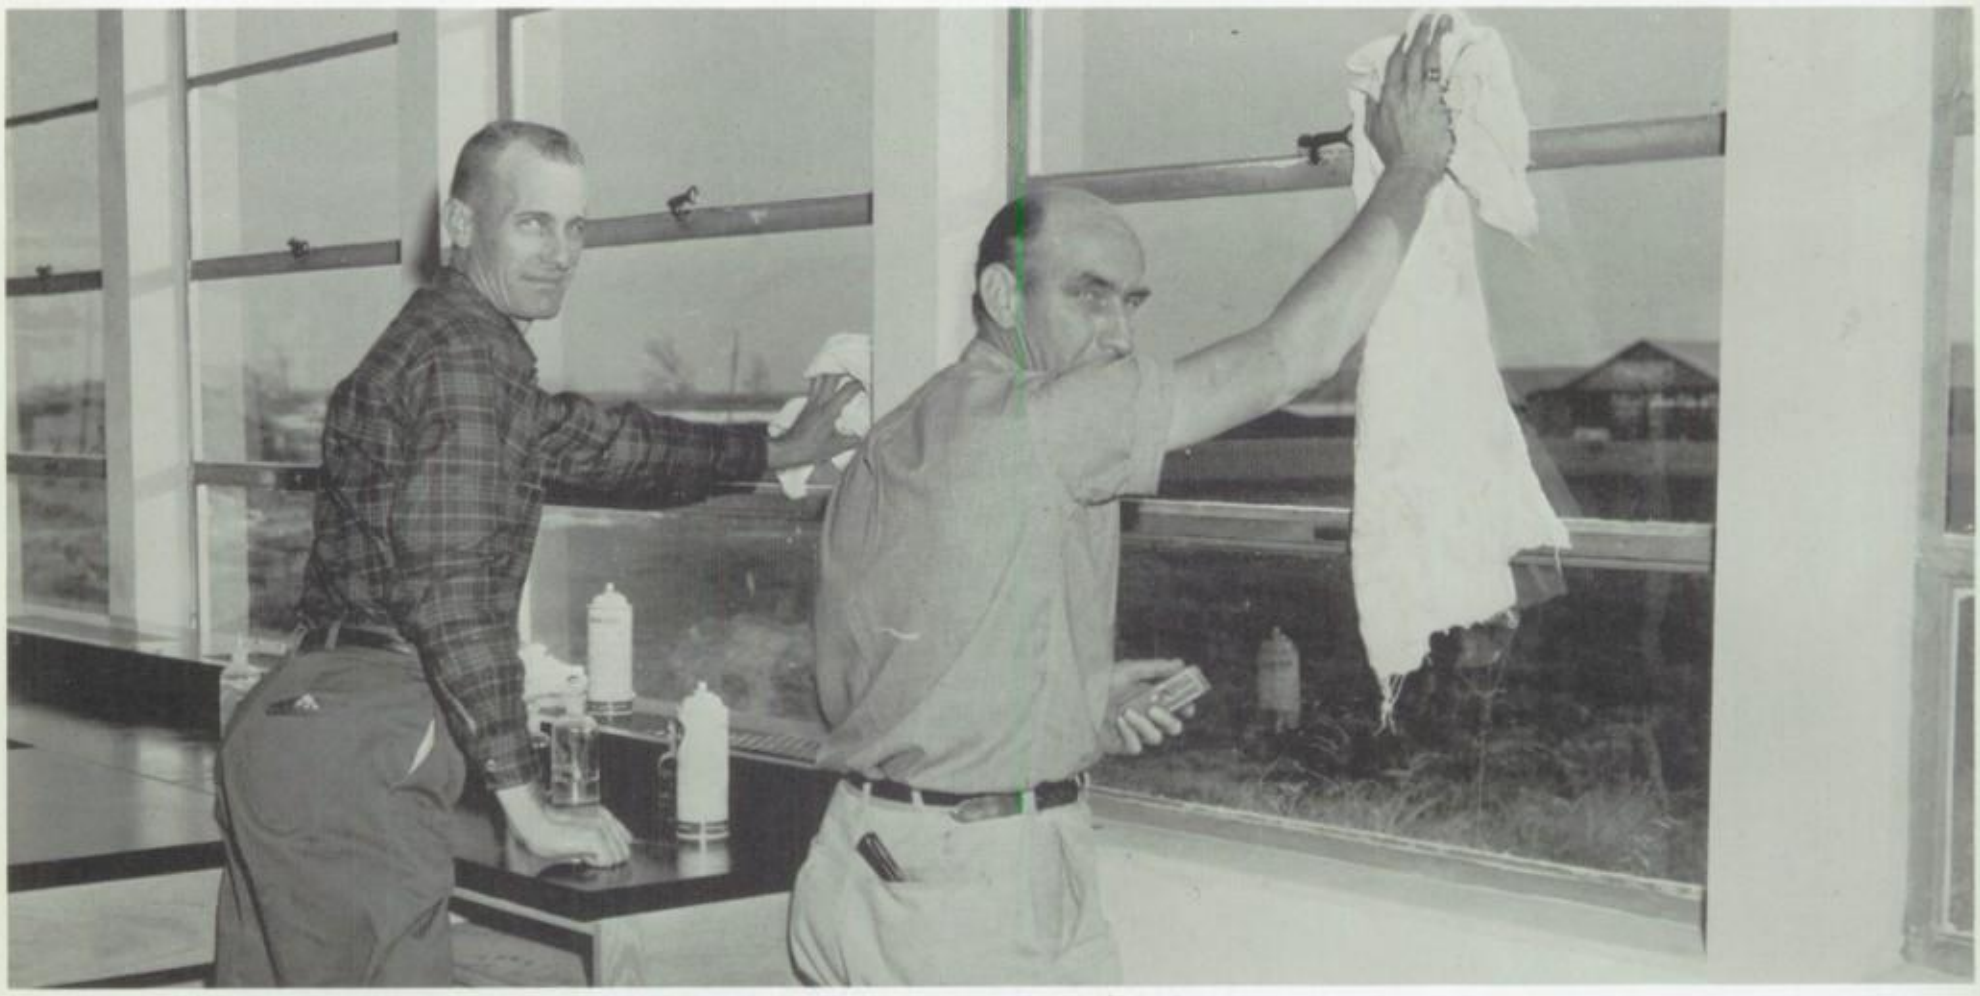
MAINTENANCE AND TRANSPORTATION



Dwight Taft and Lawrence Moeller. These are the men who receive so little recognition, yet, night and day in winter and summer they keep our building clean. It takes a very skilled person to keep the physical plant of a school running smoothly. We are grateful to these men for their faithful service and good humor.

The bus drivers were there to pick us up whether the weather was fair or bad. Some of the drivers helped us by driving to out-of-town activities, so that many of the students were able to attend, who would not have been able otherwise.

Some of the activities of the club this year were: a talk by a former N.C.H.S. student, recently returned from service duty in Germany; Christmas carolling in German at Friendship Manor and at approximately eighty (80) homes in this school district; a CARE package collection, large enough to supply school kits--or to buy food for the children of several families for a month in one of the Latin American countries.

"Headin' for a Weddin' " was the major project of the Drama Club for the 1965-66 school year. This group was also responsible for other short programs for clubs and organizations in the community during the year.

The main purpose of the pep club is to promote enthusiasm and stimulate good sportsmanship, courteous relations and graceful acceptance of results.

This year the pep club sponsored several excellent pep assemblies and the most beautiful homecoming dance and coronation ever.

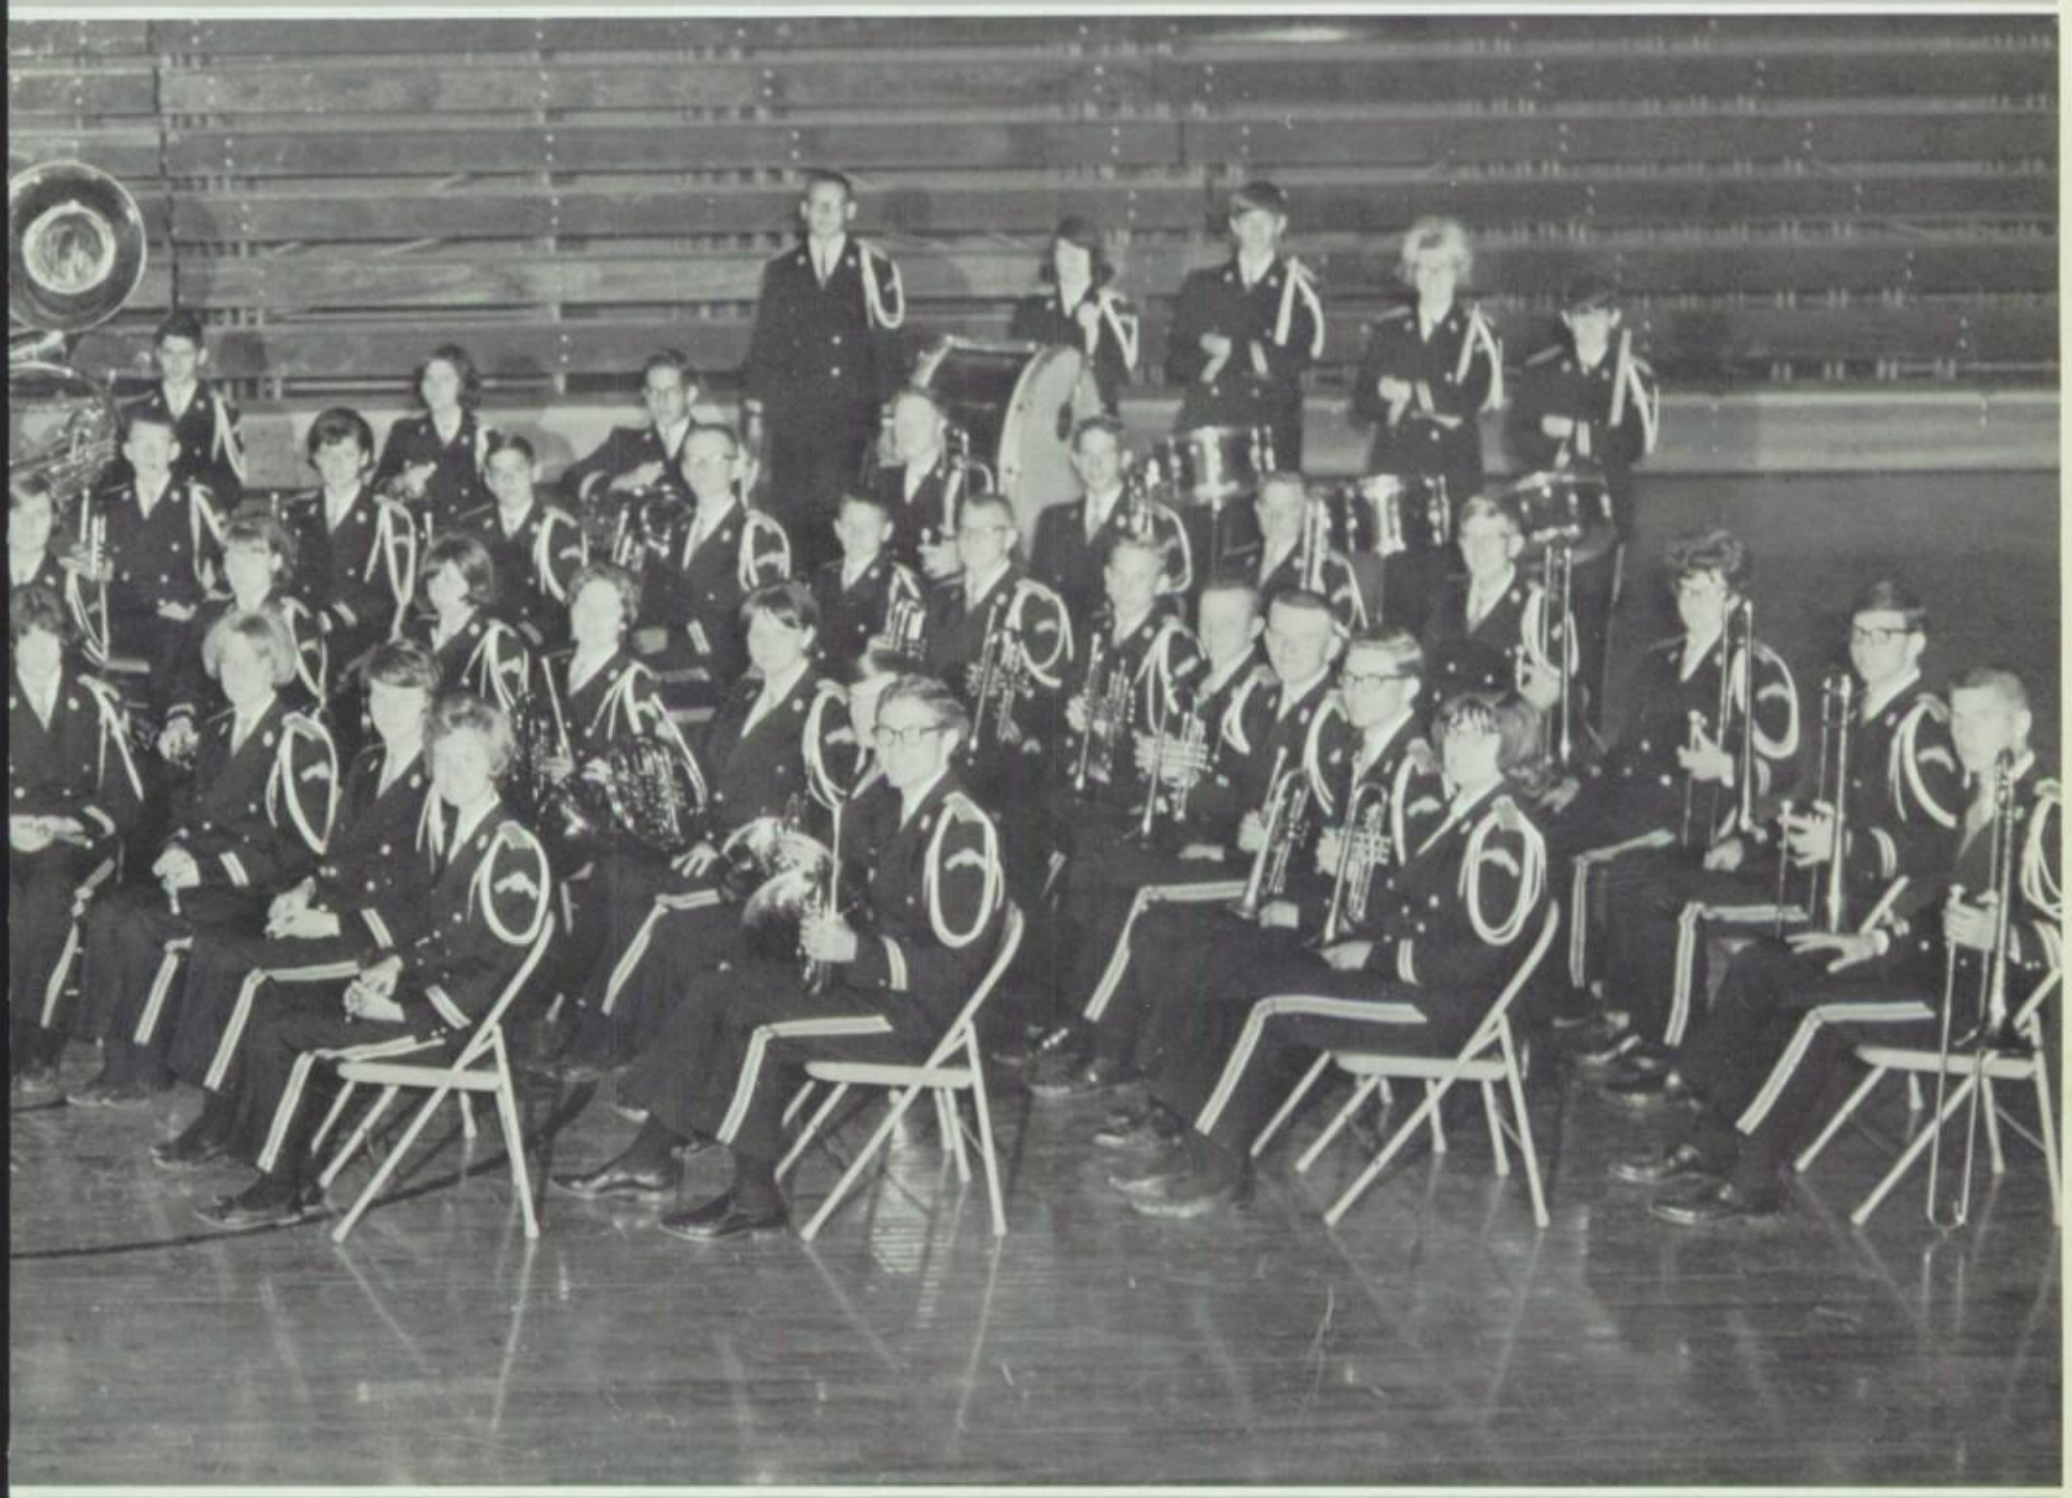
SCHOOL BAND



The Concert Band had an enrollment of 76 this year, and served as a performing group both as a marching band and concert band. Besides performing at home football games, the marching band appeared in the Okawville Wheat Festival Parade, Centralia and Nashville Halloween parades and the Homecoming Parade. There were numerous other invitiations received, but due to conflicts were declined. The Concert Band was divided into two Pep Bands which appeared at all home basketball games. In addition to this, a formal concert was given in February and the band again participated in the Tri-City Band Festival at Chester. The band competed in the IHSA music contests in March and numerous soloists and ensembles from the band participated in the IHSA solo and ensemble contests.

For the first time this year, the new members of the band were selected from tryouts due to the increasing school enrollment.

ROARING 20's

Beautiful decorations of red and white set the stage for a night of gangsters and "bathtub gin." The lobby was transformed into a funeral parlor which contained a well-used casket for a notorious gangland leader. A bookcase concealed the door to the prom until the password "Al sent me" was given and the entrance was revealed. Inside the gymnasium was a speakeasy in which a bar was at one end and the bandstand at the other. The skyliners provided the musical entertainment while the sophomore waiters and waitresses provided the guests with variations of the Charleston. Eliot Ness and the Untouchables raided the speakeasy around midnight and removed some of the dangerous gangsters, took them for a "little ride," and "got rid of them."

The festivities came to a close when the balloons were released from the ceiling. Following a movie, "If a Man Answers," which was shown in the auditorium, breakfast was served by the Jaycees at 3 o'clock in the morning.

OUR QUEEN

Our queen, Miss Paulette Ladendecker, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ladendecker. Paulette wore a white formal of taffeta with a lace covered bodice. Queen Paulette was presented and crowned by Mr. Bob Wilkey.

Paulette has two sisters and her hobbies include sports of all kinds. She is a member of the A Capella Choir, Honor Society, Student Council, Pep Club. During her freshman year, Paulette was Homecoming Attendant. She has also represented her class in the Yearbook's Who's Who with the honors of Miss Freshman, Miss Sophomore, Miss Junior and Miss Senior.

Following a spirited pep assembly, the third annual parade left the grade school. Its theme, "Song Titles" had been carried out in the floats representing each class at NCHS. "Sayonara" was the song title chosen by the Senior class. A huge coloring book, boxes of crayons, and a loving cup were the articles the Junior class chose to represent their title, "Our Coloring Book." The Sophomore class, winner of last years competition, chose "Pop Goes the Weasel," as their theme. "I Got Stung", was the theme of the Freshman class entry.

That night the Christopher Bearcats felt the sting of the Hornets on the gridiron in the annual homecoming game. The final score stood at 27-6 with the Hornets on top.

The gym had been transformed under the theme of "Moonlight and Roses" for the coronation ceremony and dance. It had been decorated with three red roses on a white background along the west end. On the opposite end, clouds, a white picket fence, and more roses served as the setting for the dance band and the Jorrells.

Immediately preceding the coronation ceremonies the pages, Bob Kraus and Gary Richards, laid a red carpet the length of the gym. Rose Krueger, the retiring queen, was presented first to the waiting crowd. Next in the queen's court was Donna Harre, Freshman class attendant; Jo Cindy Schmale, Sophomore class attendant; Phyllis Malick, Junior class attendant; Carla and Craig Schmittler, gift bearers; Mary Behrman, Senior attendant; and Cheryl Harre, Maid-of-Honor. Next came the long awaited moment, the introduction of the 1965-66 Homecoming Queen--Paulette Ladendecker--wearing a white bellshaped gown featuring a bateau neckline and lace bodice. After Bob Wilkey placed the queen's crown on Paulette's head, the homecoming court honored the new queen with a curtsy. Jerry Miller then sang, "Sweetheart of Nashville High." Larry Maschhoff, senior, was narrator.

The plot of the play revolved around Homer Hollowbone (Charles Longwell), who falls in love with Melissa Dugan (Julie Hale), a debutante with whom he has been corresponding. But Homer is already being pursued by the boisterous Bertha Blairhouse (Connie Haege), who has arrived at the Hollowbone cabin with her widowed mother (Ruth Gholson) and brother, Slim (Larry Maschhoff). Complications arise when Melissa appears at the Hollowbone cabin with her two old-maid traveling companions (Sandra Torrens and Carol Smith). The houseful of guests become involved in a "feud" between the Hollowbones and the Blairhouses, but a few surprises brought about a peaceful and happy ending. Other characters in the play included Grandpappy Hankley (Larry Roethemeyer), a spry old chap being pursued by Widow Blairhouse; Paw Hollowbone (Wayne Collmeyer, who is lazy and quite enthused about teaching his pet skunk tricks; May Hollowbone (Elaine Sachtleben), a hard-working drudge who tries her best to raise her half-dozen children; Sarah Jo Hollowbone (Frances Nail), who is the cleanest member of the family and tries to help Homer with his problems; Gracie May (Gloria Krzyzanoski) constantly scratching herself, and very sarcastic and antagonistic; Fannie Jane (Amy Evans), the industrious member of the family; and Peper (Tom Hutchings) and Sis (Marilyn Michael), the "younguns" who spend most of their time under the table hiding or aggravating their family.

GERMAN AND FRENCH CLUB INITIATIONS

A strange, strange type structure stood in front of the gym lobby entrance on the evening of January 28. The Honor Society was sponsoring a Sadie Hawkins Dance and there were Little Abners and Daisy Maes and Hog Callers and Weddins' and Divorcees all over the place. Why we even ended up by electin' Glo Krzyzanoski as our Daisy Mae and we even got us two Little Abners beins' they were both so good lookin'. They be Sam Roethemeyer and Bill Patton. They also had a hog callin' contest and Tom Eastman won it. The entertainment was provided by some loud modern musicians called the Ron-Dells. The big highlight of the evening was Ted Janoski as Marrin Sam and he sure did perform a lot of ceremonies.

PONSORS SADIE HAWKINS DANCE

OUR SWEETHEART

FRANCES NAIL

Red hearts, cupids, tablecloths and white candles were chosen as a setting by the local FHA for their Sweetheart Coronation and Dance.

Dorothy Engele acting as mistress of ceremonies, recognized Mrs. Petry, the NCHS chapter advisor, before introducing "Sweethearts on Parade." Participants in this lighthearted routine featuring Dhillis Philler, better known as Connie Roethemeyer, were Grace Hartlipp, Doris Unverfehrt, Judy Cross, Joyce Oexeman and Marilyn Neuhaus.

The Candlebearess were the first members of the royalty presented. Next in the queen's court was Lois Woker, second Maid of Hearts. She was escorted by Bob Jones. The first Maid of Hearts, Nancy Oexeman, was escorted by Dennis Schnitker.

Then came the long awaited moment, the introduction of the 1966 Sweetheart, Frances Nail. Frances was escorted to her place of honor by Bruce Sprehe. Her long flowing train of red velvet lined with white satin symbolized the colors of the FHA and the dozen long-stemmed roses which she carried symbolized the club's flower, the red rose.

BASEBALL

THE RECORD WASN'T THE WHOLE STORY

As one might say many times, "In life not everything goes just as we would like. Sometimes no matter how much you work for something, it just doesn't happen that way." Such was the case for the Nashville High Baseball Team.

A fine group of athletes gathered together every afternoon in an effort to achieve the finest baseball season record possible. Much sweat and toil went into the preparation. Many hopes were raised as the Hornets entered the season. When the dust had finally settled, the baseball team had recorded a losing season, but, recorded with these losses was that never-say-die spirit and anticipation for a winning season in 1966.

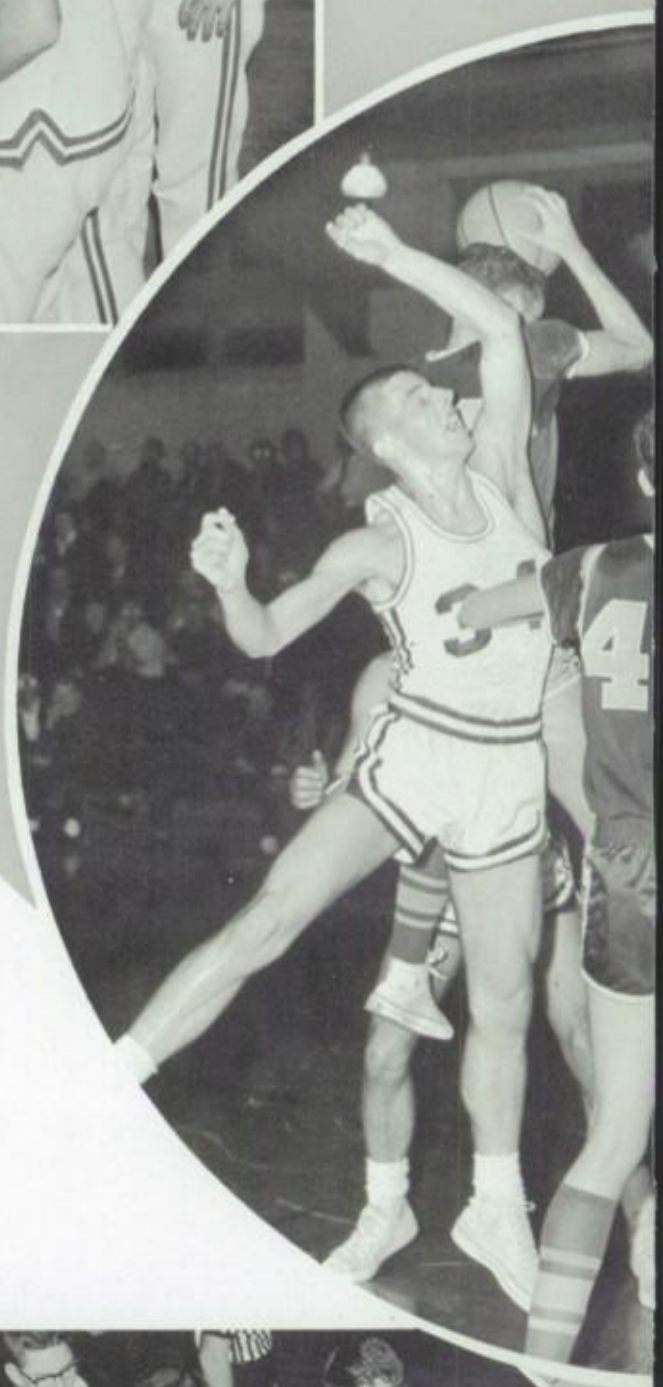
HORNETS PROVIDE A SEASO



Half the fun of being a spectator is the contest to out-yell the opponents' boosters. A study of the extent to which the spectators inject themselves into the thrill of the game will disclose a wide variety of facial expressions.

F THRILLS AND EXCITEMENT

What can be more breath-taking than a tied score with only a minute left in the game? A foul shot with seconds to go, then a smooth skillful goal, or a thrilling victory over a traditional foe, are all moments to be remembered.

OUR THANKS

Our heartfelt appreciation to the merchants and business people of our city who while making great strides industrially and commercially have supported its educational program. Their confidence in us expressed by their use of our yearbook as an advertising medium is a challenging compliment.

Our heartfelt appreciation to Elmer Schnare, our photographer who has taken each and every picture in this yearbook, who has given our book a definite look of professionalism through his outstanding photography. We thank you, Elmer, for the many, many hours that you have spent making this book possible.

Our heartfelt appreciation to the Evans who let us use their home to take the pictures for the yearbook "Who's Who" section.

Yes, we thank each and every person who helped through guidance, enthusiasm, and understanding, as we worked to produce what we hope will be the largest and best "Hornet" ever for our school.

Debbie, All the best and luck in your therapies. Mason Jr.

The book is finished and the year draws to a close. Ahead lies graduation, prom, summer vacation, summer jobs, and for many the plans and preparation for higher learning and a college education. As the halls grow dim and the classrooms quiet, we hope this book will bring back the memories of this year and hold NCHS forever in your memory.

Tho' summer turns to winter and the present disappears,
The laughter we were glad to share
will echo thru the years.
When other nights and other days
may find us gone our sep'rate ways,
We will have these MOMENTS TO REMEMBER
